

Sailing is equal parts passion and hard work!

As a circumnavigator and executive, Stefanie Voss learned that not the wind direction but our actions decide whether the ship remains on course or not. To the dynamic speaker it is quite clear: Leadership equates responsibility and self-guidance means to take the sails into your own hands! Stefanie Voss takes her audience on a journey to themselves and demonstrates how one does not lose sight of one's goal – even under unfavourable conditions!

PARTICIPANT FEEDBACK

"In the middle of a change project, Ms. Voss hit the nerve of the team in exactly the right place. The topic of change has become even more tangible for our managers through her presentation. She explains the phenomenon of complaining, but also encourages constructive design. With her forceful message "Get out of your comfort zone, because that's the only way to success!" she manages to imbue a thoroughly difficult and painful topic such as a major reorganization with optimism and confidence. The clear announcements, the gripping story and also the forceful words of Stefanie Voss have worked. Our conclusion: a great presentation on the topic of change!"
